

THE BOURBON NEWS.

PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY AND FRIDAY IN THE YEAR.

VOLUME XXVII

PARIS, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1907.

NUMBER 1.

Bert Southern and the Wheeler Sisters with the DePew-Burdette Stock Co., at the Paris Grand Monday night.

Our Twenty-Seventh Anniversary

With this issue the Bourbon News enters the twenty-seventh year of its existence without ever having missed getting out a single edition of the paper from its birth to this good time. Its present editor and owner, Mr. Swift Champ, has endeavored at all times to run a "home paper," and the hearty support it has received demonstrates how fully it has met the demand of the people. The columns of our paper speak for themselves as to what an advertising medium it is; if the paper did not give our merchants good returns for their advertising space, they would have long since stopped their ads.

The News is strictly Democratic and will continue to fight the battles of Democracy to the end of time. Our aim in the future will be as in the past, to make the paper a still greater power for good and a potent factor in the upbuilding of both town and county.

We have never been nor never will be the tool of any political ring or any clique, as papers often become, but will continue to be free and untrammeled to print the news and facts as we find them.

The circulation of the News is one of the largest of any semi-weekly in Kentucky, and we are glad to say is steadily increasing. The advertising and job patronage is the best in its history and we want to sincerely thank our patrons and will at all times in the future do our utmost to please them.

We have at the head of our job department, Mr. R. S. Porter, who for accuracy in turning out jobs of every description to please the public, has few equals, and no superiors. If you want anything in the printing line from a visiting card to a 100 page book, or a sale bill to a circus poster you will find the Bourbon News job rooms the place to get them.

Extra Nice Butcher Cattle

Loughlin Bros. bought of Wm. Whaley an extra nice bunch of 30 head of stall-fed butcher cattle at a fancy price. These choice beefeves are now being offered the public at Loughlin Bros' meat market. 29-2t

Free Tickets to the Opera House Next Week.

If you are lucky there is a chance for you securing two seats to see the DePew-Burdette Stock Company at the Grand next week, free of charge. Here is the plan, read it carefully. For Monday night's performance Manager Borland will give Dr. Oberdorfer, the druggist, who has charge of the advance sale, the numbers of two seats each in the dress circle, balcony and gallery. The person picking out these two seats when purchasing their tickets will be presented with them absolutely free. On Monday evening two other seats on each of the three floors will be sold etc., and the persons occupying them will be presented with the same seats free for the next night. This will be repeated every night during the week. The only consideration is that the tickets for Monday night must be purchased at Oberdorfer's drug store before 6 o'clock on Monday evening. Coming Monday night it will be announced from the stage the numbers of the seats that will be given away the following night. Here is a good chance for you to see a good show absolutely free, and if you are lucky you may see it more than once. The earlier you buy your seats Monday the better chance you will have.

Cut flowers, funeral designs, etc., gotten on short notice by Jo. S. Varden. It

Hot Soup.

We serve nice hot soup every day. JAS. E. CRAVEN.

Arm Broken.

Mrs. Clarke, mother of Chas. Clarke, travelling a lesson for the National Biscuit Company, who resides on Pleasant street, #11 in front of her residence Wednesday evening and suffered a fracture of the left arm at the wrist.

MILLERSBURG ITEMS.

—Job printing—neat and cheap—give me a call. R. M. CALDWELL.

—Try C. W. Howard's 14¢ per pound coffee. This good.

—Now is the time to get in your work on feeding stock food to sheep, cows and hogs. Also Panaca to your chickens. It is sold by C. W. Howard, sole agent.

—Mr. M. P. Collier and family moved from the property of Dr. W. M. Miller on 9th street Monday, to his property on Vimont, lately vacated by Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Dickey.

—Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Clark gave a coasting party Monday evening. About 30 people were present and all had a good time. The party culminated in a nice lunch.

—Beginning with February 1st, continuing through the entire month, I will sell all grades of Chinaware at greatly reduced prices. This is a rare opportunity to secure bargains. LOUIS VIMONT.

—Mrs. N. J. Fant, of Flemingsburg, was the guest of her son, Nelson J. Fant, Jr., at M. M. L. Monday.

—Mr. Joe W. Mock raised nearly $19 dollars for the Augusta Relief fund for the flood sufferers, Monday.

—Mr. E. B. Taylor has leased from Mr. J. V. Ingels a vacant lot adjoining the Ingels livery stable on Vimont street, and will build a blacksmith shop on it as soon as the weather will permit.

—Lawrence Thorn has rented from Charles Martin, agent, for Mrs. U. V. Darlington, of Parkersburg, W. Va., her farm one mile from town.

—Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Purnell returned Monday from a two weeks' visit to their daughter, Mrs. Frank Collier, of Clintonville.

—Mrs. Lou F. Conway in stepping from the back doorstep at her home Monday evening fell over a bucket severely spraining her ankle.

—Dr. W. M. Miller took Mrs. Ella Thaxton to a Louisville hospital Monday, where she will be treated by a specialist.

—Mr. J. G. Allen is convalescent from a severe attack of grip.

—Mrs. G. W. Dailey, Mrs. C. T. Darnell, Mrs. A. S. Best, Messrs. Brice Letton and J. W. Payne continue about the same.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Howard entertained the young married people Thursday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. McIntyre.

—Mr. and Mrs. M. H. O'Neal attended the funeral of her grandfather, Mr. Martin, of Sharpsburg, at Mt. Sterling, Wednesday.

—T. D. Judy lost a valuable milk cow last week from over breeding.

—The Millersburg Female College is in a better condition and has more pupils than at any time since Prof. Fisher has been in charge. Tuesday he refused new pupils on account of being full up. Something he has never done before.

—Richard Walter will leave here about the first of February to open a restaurant and confectionary at Sharpsburg.

—Mrs. Paris, of Lexington, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Patterson.

—Miss Allie Long, of Cynthiana, was the guest of Miss Mary McDaniel Saturday and Sunday.

—The Seniors and Juniors of M. F. C. will hold their annual reception on the evening of Feb. 22nd.

—Dr. W. G. Dailey will move his office on March 1st to the rooms of Dr. J. D. Best, lately occupied by Misses Lee & Letton.

—We handle everything in our line from a post hole to a left-hand monkey wrench. Prices reasonable.

PEALE COLLIER & CO.

—Mrs. M. E. Martin and Miss Charlotte Vimont are on the sick list.

—Cecil, the nine-year-old son of Mr. Richard Taylor, of St. Joseph, Mo., grandson of Mrs. Belle Taylor, of this place, died last Friday of fever.

—Miss Katherine Bigham lady principal of M. F. C. and president of the Young Ladies Missionary Society of the college, gave a unique entertainment in the parlors of that institution last Saturday evening from 7 to 9. In the receiving line were Miss Bingham and officers, each representing a missionary from Japan, Korea, China, Brazil and Mexico. Miss Reeves gave a pathetic elocutionary number. The music by Miss Ethel Fisher and Miss Giles was delightful. The evening was delightfully spent by all present.

DUPONT-BURDETTE STOCK CO.

The attraction at the Grand Opera House for one week starting Monday night will be the Dupont-Burdette Company, one of the very best stock organizations now in tour.

This company is said to be a large one, and they claim to have a larger clientele than any other similar organization. They play enjoyed such enduring popularity as "A Man of Mystery," Monday nights offering and the cause of its popularity is very apparent. The story of the play is one that appeals to all classes of theatre-goers and it would be callous nature indeed that did not respond to the sentiments expressed in the clever tale.

The company is augmented by a coterie of vaudeville artists whose between-act-stunts are a feature in themselves. Ladies will, as usual, be admitted free Monday night.

Our housekeepers say Spears & Sons' Red Cross Flour has no equal. Sold by all grocers.

That Opportunity

knocks but once at every man's door has in many instances proven to be untrue. And we propose to prove it again, for we are going to sell

Every Man's and Boy's SUIT at

Half Price

For 10
Days
Only.

This is done in order to make room for our Enormous Spring Stock Arriving Daily.

A New Line Of

KORRECT SHAPE
$3.50—SHOES—$4.00

DR. REED'S CUSHION
SOLE SHOES,
$5.00.

CHAS. R. JAMES, HEAD TO FOOT OUTFITTER.

FRANK & CO'S "The Ladies' Store."

For Spring Sewing

We Are Showing the Most Complete
Lines Of

Hamburgs, Laces,
White Goods
and Linens,

Ever Shown in Paris

Special Prices on Cloaks,
Shoes and Millinery.

INSPECTION IS INVITED.

FRANK & CO.

Paris, Kentucky.

Sold Also by
S. D. DODSON, Mintersburg.

DON'T FORGET
Saturday, Jan. 19,
to January 30th.
Great Reduction Sale of
Dry Goods, Dress Goods, Ladies' and Children's Cloaks, Ladies' Suits, Skirts, Waists, Millinery, Shoes and Carpets.

TWIN BROS.,

Dry Goods, Shoes and Millinery Department.
PARIS, KENTUCKY.

Our Big Clearance Sale of FURNITURE,
CARPETS,
MATTINGS
AND RUGS,
HAS CLOSED,

But we will meet any firm in the State on Prices, Quality considered. When it comes to furnishing a house complete, we have the goods. Everything from the kitchen on up, and we buy more goods than any two furnishing stores in the State. We operate five large furniture establishments. We buy all goods in car-load lots. Consequently we are enabled to give our customers the benefit of lower prices than any other furniture house in the State. *

We Now Have Our
Spring Carpets and Druggets open for Your Inspection.

Give Us a Call Before Looking Elsewhere.

A.F. WHEELER FURNITURE CO.

Both 'Phones 262.

The Store That Saves You Money.

Grippe or Influenza, whichever you like to call it, is one of the most weakening diseases known.

Scott's Emulsion, which is Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites in easily digested form, is the greatest strength-builder known to medical science.

It is so easily digested that it sinks into the system, making new blood and new fat, and strengthening nerves and muscles.

Use Scott's Emulsion after Influenza.

Invaluable for Coughs and Colds.

ALL DRUGGISTS: 50c. AND $1.00.

USE GAS COKE

CRUSHED, 11c. Per Bushel.
LUMP, -- 10c. Per Bushel.

A load of coal costs you $5.00. Much of the HEAT goes off as GAS with the smoke. We save the GAS and charge you only $2.50 for a load of COKE and you

GET ALL OF THE HEAT.

This Coke is the Cheapest, Hottest and Cleanest Fuel on the Market.

PARIS GAS LIGHT COMPANY

DR. LYON'S French Periodical Drops

Strictly vegetable, perfectly harmless, sure to accomplish DESIRED RESULTS. Greatest known female remedy. Price, $1.50 per bottle.

CAUTION Beware of counterfeits and imitations. The genuine is put up only in paste-board Car-

Send for Circular to WILLIAMS ART. CO., Sole Agents, Cleveland, Ohio.

For Sale by Oberdorfer

THE BOURBON NEWS.

BOTH 'PHONES, 124.

NO. 320 MAIN STREET.

SWIFT CHAMP. - - EDITOR AND OWNER.

Entered at the Paris, Kentucky, Postoffice as Second-class Mail Matter.

Established in 1881—24 Years of Continuous Publication

Display advertisements, $1.00 per inch for first time; 50 cents per inch each subsequent insertion; reading notices, 10 cents per line each issue; reading notices in black type, 20 cents per line each issue; cards of thanks, calls on candidates and similar matter, 10 cents per line. Special rates for big advertisements.

The Lumber Trust.

The Senate has ordered an inquiry into the operations of the Lumber Trust, which Senator Kittredge, of South Dakota declares is the "king of all trusts in restraint of trade—renorseless in its grasp on the people and the only change which it contemplates is to increase the price of its products at stated and frequent intervals, without regard to cost." He also said that "within the last five years he price of lumber and timber products have arbitrarily advanced from 100 to 500 per cent."

Senator Kittredge proposed to protect the people from this monopoly by having the federal government investigate the trust and suggested that there is a simple way to help break the power of this rapacious trust if Republican members of Congress were willing to do it, by cutting off the tariff protection. The tariff tax on lumber ranges from 10 to 64 per cent. of its value, and if lumber products were placed on the free list there would be considerable competition from Canada and other countries that have surplus lumber to sell. The ensuing competition under free lumber, joined with the criminal prospection of the lumber barons, for no fine would probably have any effect on them, would break up the combination or trust and bring down the price of lumber to what it is worth.

It must be remembered, however, that the price of lumber will never again be anything like as low as in former years, for the stock of standing timber in the United States has been so depleted that what remains will still be sold for a much higher price than formerly.

It is singular that every Congressional district but one adjacent to the Canadian line where the voters would especially benefit by competing lumber is represented by a Republican, who all refuse to revise the tariff, or even allow the subject to be considered. And in the next Congress the same political alignment prevails with two exceptions. How can the settlers of South Dakota and other prairie states expect to be relieved from the exactions of the Lumber Trust if they continue to elect Republicans to represent them, who are pledged to continue the Republican tariff policy that protect the trusts?

It will take two years, if not more, for the Department of Commerce and Labor to investigate and report on the Lumber Trust and then, if the Department of Justice thinks it can make a case against the Lumber Barons, there will be a long drawn out legal fight and during all that time the people will still be suffering from the prohibitive prices the Lumber Trust is charging.

In a week Congress could pass a bill placing lumber on the free list and thus give, at least, partial relief. Every thousand feet of lumber imported from Canada or elsewhere, would relieve the lumber market of part of the strain the Lumber Trust now imposes on it. The trust rather than see its competitors underselling it would naturally reduce its prices to meet the competition.

But Senator Kittredge, like some other Republican Congressmen that want certain products relieved from the tariff tax, are unwilling to help the Democrats force a general revision of the tariff which would give relief from the present tariff high prices. They believe in the Republican policy of protecting the trusts, but cry out about some particular trusts, so as to appear to their constituents to favor tariff revision.

But the tariff cannot be revised in this way, for the trusts hang together for protection and the only way to rout them is to unhorse all the trust barons that are unduly protected at the same time and that will not be possible until the voters defeat more of the stand-patters that represent trust interests, rather than the interest of their constituents. As it is now one trust has more power with Republican Congressmen than 200,000 people have.

Consideration For Others.

Only three words! Yet it takes some a lifetime to understand just what they mean. If there is anything in this world which a mother should teach her children it is consideration for others. The lack of it is one of the sure signs of bad training. Snobbery never made a lady, and women or girls who never stop to consider others can and do cause some very bitter heartaches. A pathetic case was recently heard when mother looked down at her little hunchback child, a boy, crippled by failing, and said, with tears in her eyes: "I sometimes wish my little boy would die. He is the laughing stock of every child in the neighborhood, and goes to sleep many times crying in my arms at night." Can you imagine the agony a mother must suffer to see her own flesh and blood taunted by unruly children because of his misfortune? She would bear the untold agony of seeing him bruised rather than have him suffer taunts. Last Christmas several little girls refused to sing in a church cantata because some of their classmates could not wear white dresses. And that is the beginning of church fellowship of life! A similar event occurred two years ago in an Eastern city. Two young girls refused to sing with a girl clerk because she could not dress well for the occasion. She left the church, but was kindly persuaded to return. She sang a solo and won the admiration of all present. As soon as the concert was over one of the men in the church called a meeting and proposed that instead of sending more missionaries to China and other places, they would train Mary's voice for the Master, and today she is one of the best singers in church circles. There is a little boy in St. Louis,—there may be hundreds just like him—who recently left school because the scholars made fun of his old clothes. Pride is full grown even in boys. Do you blame him? Of course not; no one could. So be considerate and teach your children the same beautiful lesson.—Woman's National Daily.

Overcame Its Timidity.

The first time the House of Representatives tried to raise the salary limit to its members, somebody set up a cry of "Wolf! Wolf!" and the bill was not passed. In that case, the public was the wolf—or was supposed to be—and the gentlemen who wanted more money but didn't take it thought they were to be eaten as quickly as this horrible wolf could get to them. But the wolf was not there. In his place, it developed, there was a very harmless sheep which feebly said "Ba-a-a!" and went on about its business. There was no opposition. Indeed, it seemed to be the general idea that if the Representatives wanted more money there was no reason why they shouldn't take it, and there was as much criticism of their timidity as there was of the proposed salary.

That was the reason the House tried again. Having found a sheep where it believed it saw a wolf, at a second vote it took unto itself a comfortable increase—in pay, by a large majority. And nobody is kicking very hard. The public realizes that conditions have changed very much since the $5,000 salary limit was established, and is not losing sleep in expectation that the country will be thrown into bankruptcy. On the principle that the servant is worthy of his hire, it is probably true that if a man is good enough to be congressman he is good enough to be paid reasonably well for doing the work expected of him.

Whither Are We Drifting.

Upton Sinclair welcomes President Roosevelt as the greatest living Socialist and declares that Harriman is aiding Socialism by merging the transportation lines of the country under one management, which the Socialists believe will make it easier for the people to acquire them. But the question is, do the people of the United States want to acquire all the transportation lines and all the means of production and embark on the Socialist program which would make us servants of the state, instead of free agents? Although President Roosevelt is a friend of Mr. Sinclair, it will require more evidence than has so far been forthcoming to make the American people believe that he is rushing them into a Socialistic vortex from which there is no retreat. But it is a good time for all patriots to take stock of the leaders of parties and the principles of the parties endorse and arrive at a just conclusion on "whither are we drifting?"

May Escape Together.

There certainly will be a drain on the resources of the Standard Oil Trust if it is convicted of conspiracy in the 937 indictments found by the Hancock county, Ohio, grand jury. The total fines that can be imposed would aggregate $58,000,000. If the grand juries also find indictments and should win in each case, what a fabulous sum the Trust would have to pay. But the Oil Trust, like the Sugar Trust, will probably get off with comparatively small fines and may escape altogether.

Free Reclining Chair Cars.

The Southern Railway has inaugurated free reclining chair car service between Louisville and Evansville on their fast through trains leaving Louisville at 7:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. daily, running solid to Evansville, without change. This line also operates free reclining chair cars on night Lexington and Danville to St. Louis, also Pullman Sleeper through from Danville to St. Louis. The Southern Railway is 23 miles the shortest from Louisville to Nashville and forty-three miles the shortest to St. Louis.

BLOCK LIGHTS.

I have a large stock of the famous Block Gas Lamps. Lamp and mantle complete, only 50 cents.

J. J. CONNELLY.

Professional :: Cards.

CHARLES A. McMILLAN,
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.

Office No. 2, Broadway.
East Tenn. Phone 743.
(Dr. J. T. McMillan's Old Stand.)

W.M. KENNEY. W.K. DUDLEY
Drs. Kenney & Dudley,
Office Opp. Fordham Hotel.

OFFICE HOURS { 8 to 9:30 a.m.
1:30 to 3 p.m.
7 to 8 p.m.

PHONES 136.

D.R. A. H. KELLER,
PRACTICING PHYSICIAN,
Offices in Agricultural Building
Paris, Kentucky

J. WILLIAMS,
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.
Room 1 Elks Building.

C. BARNES,
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,
Room 8, Elks Building.
Home Phone 72.

D.R. J. T. BROWN,
Office over Oberdorfer's Drug Store.
Home Phone 258. E Tenn.

Fresh Fish,

Oysters,

AND

Celery.

SHEA & CO.

Both Phones 423.

V. BOGAERT. J. E. KNOCKE
VICTOR BOGAERT,
Manufacturing Jeweler and Importer
No. 135 W. Main Street,

Lexington, Kentucky.
Importing House—Brussels, Belgium.

Fruits, Candies, Figs,
Raisins and Nuts of
All Kinds.
Home Made Candy a Specialty.
Your Orders
Carefully Selected.

Bruce Holladay..

THE GROCER.
Main Street next to Odd Fellows' Hall.

PILES Dr. Williams' Indian Pile
Ointment will cure Blind
Bleeding and Itching
Piles. It removes allays theitching at once, acts as a poultice, gives instant relief. Dr. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment is prepared for external use by the private physician of the King of England. Every box is warranted. By druggists, by mail on receipt of price, 50 cents and $1.00. WILLIAMS
MANUFACTURING CO., Props., Cleveland, Ohio
For Sale by Oberdorfer.

J. H. Current & Co.
New Fordham Bar.

The Famous Jung and Celebrated High Life Beers.

Free Lunch every day. Hot Roast, etc.
The best whiskey in the world, including Vaihook, Faynns, Bond &
Lillard, Chicken Cock, "J. M. T."
and the best of Old Rye Whiskies.
Open day and night. We never sleep.

A SEAT OF MANY ILLS.

Eye Strain Is Responsible For a Number of Ailments.

When the specialist to whom they had taken their sixteen-year-old daughter on account of what seemed to be a case of incipient melancholia diagnosed her case as one of eye strain and ordered prompt treatment from an oculist, the parents of a young New York girl were astonished. Eye strain seemed as remote from melancholia as would come on the feet. Their astonishment was proportionately increased when after a few treatments and acquiring glasses the child showed noticeable improvement.

Latter day medical science traces to eye strain many ills which seem so remote from the eyes that formerly physicians never thought of establishing a connection between them. Sick headache, nervousness, melancholia, insomnia, are but a few which have of late been laid to the door of weak eyes, the proper treatment having been neglected.

Nervous diseases of the nature of St. Vitus' dance are now thought to originate frequently in eye trouble. The weak eyes blink incessantly, and this leads to a general contortion of the facial muscles, which grows on the subject through constant repetition.—London News.

The Names of Tea.

We talk glibly about Peckoe, Bohea, etc., but few people have any idea of what these names signify.

In the dialect of Canton means "white hair," for the tea which bears this name is made from the youngest leaves, so young that the white down is still on them.

"Soochong" in the same dialect is a quite unpoetic name, it merely signifies "small kind."

"Flourishing spring" is the meaning of "Hyson."

"Kungo" signifies "labor."

Much trouble and toil are expended in its preparation at Amoy, and these are commemorated in its name. "Pehei" is called after a range of hills.—Portland (Ore.) Journal.

To Clean Bronzes.

It is not a good plan to clean bronzes,

is the polish is very easily spoiled, but if necessary nothing is better than washing them with water and ammonia, using a stiff brush like a nailbrush.

Dry carefully after rinsing thoroughly.

They should be carefully dusted every day with a soft cloth and a feather brush, and a little sweet oil may be smeared on occasionally. To remove stains from bronze make the article

very hot by dipping it in boiling water.

Then rub it with a piece of flannel dipped in suds made from yellow soap, wiping clean with soft linen cloths.

Switzerland a Modern Babel.

Switzerland, with its mixture of races and tongues, is a sort of modern Babel, a fact which causes much trouble in particular to the military authorities. At Wallenstadt the other day at the recruiting station there was a guard composed of five men. The chief was a lieutenant who spoke German only, the second a sergeant who spoke Italian only, the third a corporal who could speak French and Spanish, the fourth a private who could speak French and German, and the fifth a private who could speak French and Italian. When the lieutenant had to transmit an order to the sergeant he had to get the last named man to interpret for him. When he wanted to communicate with the corporal he had to requisition the fourth man, and so on, great delay and confusion being thus occasioned.—London News.

Shelley as a Boy.

Here is a glimpse of Shelley offered by Andrew Lang: "It seems almost incredible, but it is true, that I once knew a man who was at Eton with Shelley, who left in 1810. This was Mr. Hammond, a senior fellow of Merchant Taylor's College when I was an inquiring junior. About 1810 he told me all that I could extract from him about the poet. Shelley was not a clever boy; he never was sent up for good," which means, I conceive, that he never did a remarkable exercise in Latin verse. Mr. Hammond added that Shelley had a habit when he was walking alone of suddenly breaking into a sprint at a hundred yards pace. That was all."

She Didn't Do It.

The family jar waxed fiercer.

"You talk about my being to blame for our marrying!" shrilly exclaimed

Mrs. Vick-Seim. "John Henry, did I

limit you out and make love to you?"

"No," he snorted. "But you could have given me the glassy eye and sent me about my business, and you didn't do it, mind—you didn't do it!"—Chicago Tribune.

The Gentleman.

"Supposing I decide to let you have the money, how do I know that I shall get it back at the time you mention?" asked Brown.

"I promise it, my boy, on the word of a gentleman," replied Moore.

"Ah! In that case I may think better of it. Come around this evening and bring him with you."

None Left.

"A college education," declared the enthusiastic mother, "brings out all that is good in a boy."

"Yes," retorted William's father, and in Bill's case I wish a little of it could have stayed in."—Cleveland Press.

NEW YEAR'S IN THE ORIENT

The Greetings and the Presents In

China and Japan.

The most wonderful ceremonies connected with the new year occur in China and Japan. A Chinese city presents a busy and attractive spectacle on New Year's day. The streets are thronged with people dressed in gala attire. The mandarins are known by the red, blue, white and gilt balls on their caps. Gentlemen of rank and wealth are carried in palanquins. When friends meet they greet each other with "Kung-hi! Kung-hi!" which means, "I respectfully wish you joy." But instead of shaking hands in the American fashion each grasps his own hands, lifts them as high as his chin and with a sweeping motion throws them down as low as possible, bending the body at the same time. This is the mode of salutation among the Chinese. At the dawn of New Year's day the visits of congratulation begin, and New Year's gifts are sent to particular friends, always accompanied by a visiting ticket of red paper, on which are written the name of the donor and a list of the presents sent. These consist usually of silks, fine tea, sweetmeats, ornaments of personal wear, toys and souvenirs of various kinds. In Japan the custom is to send letters on rice paper to those in distant places, conveying the formal expression of the New Year's greetings. Presents of cooked rice, roasted peas, oranges and flags are offered to every one.—Leslie's Weekly.

Brightest.
Snappiest.
Best.

The Louisville
Times

fills the bill. Published every week-day afternoon. You keep posted on EVERYTHING when you read THE TIMES. Regular subscription price, $5.00 a year.
You can get THE TIMES and

The Bourbon News
Both One Year

For Only $6.00.

Send your order to THE
BOURBON NEWS, not THE
TIMES,

Read THE TIMES and keep up with the times.

ABUSE OF INDOORS.

WE Rely Too Much on the Protection of Our Houses.

Houses were made for shelter, not for confinement; for freedom, not restraint. They were intended to enlarge our sphere of activities, not to diminish them.

They foster the family and make progress possible, but we should not abuse their protection. We have crawled away into their still and comfortable recesses, slept in their dry, clean chambers, toasted ourselves over their sheltered fires, read by their flickering lights and eaten from their beautiful boards so long that we are grown pale, timid, peevish and thankless without.

We have kept ourselves away from the wind and the sun and the lashing rain, from the feel of the earth under foot and the sense of the leaves and stars overhead until we no longer know the keen and simple joys of being alive. We have set up barriers against the hideously of nature and cowered before her severe austerity until now we have forgotten how indispensable is all her kindly nurture, how tonic her rugged ways, how full of solace her assuaging calm.

Houses were only made to live in when it is too cold or too hot or too wet to live out of doors. Any other time out of doors is best. To sleep out of doors for a month is better than a trip to Europe.—Bliss Carman in Craftsman.

Facts About Building Stone.

Almost everybody knows the rule of the masons that stone used in building should be so placed that it will lie
as it lay in its natural bed when quarried.
But Francis W. Hoyt in the Engineering News says that this familiar rule is not always to be depended upon and needs in many cases to be supplemented with other precautions. There are three planes of fracture known to quarrymen. The rift is the direction in which the stone splits most easily, the grain that is next easiest, the head that which offers the greatest resistance. In a paving block the two sides represent the rift fracture, the top and bottom the grain and the ends the head. But in a quarry the natural bed is sometimes considerably inclined to the plane of the rift; hence the imperfection of the ordinary rule for placing the stone in building.

Yelets.

St. Augustine, Fla., founded by the Spaniards in 1564, is generally said to be the oldest European settlement within the present limits of the United States, but some twenty or thirty years earlier Coronado, the Spanish conqueror and explorer, leading an expedition from the City of Mexico northward, had founded some sort of a Spanish colony at the ancient Indian village of Ysleta, in El Paso county, Tex. In the southwest it is therefore claimed that Ysleta is the oldest European settlement in the United States.—
St. Louis Republic.

Good Answer.

A theological student supposed to be deficient in judgment was asked by a professor in the course of a class examination:

"Pray, Mr. E., how would you cover a fool?"

"By the questions he would ask."

"He was the rather stunning reply.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Don't Grow stale!

Many a man bewails his lack of success in life after he has permitted himself to get into a rut. While dreaming of success he has been as blind as a bat and slower than two snails. He blocked his own way.—Manchester
Union.

Dig From a Friend.

"How old is your husband, dear?"
“Forty. There's ten years' difference between us."

"You surprise me! I should never have thought you fifty years old!"— Figaro.

It is seldom that punishment, though lame of foot, has failed to overtake a villain.—Horace.

PURITY

is the best

FLOUR

for your dough.

Sold by all Grocers.

Paris Milling Co.

McCarthy
& Board

Insurance Agents,

Representing:

ROYAL,
ETNA,
NORTH BRITISH,
CONTINENTAL,
GLENS FALLS,
AMERICAN,
HAMBURG BREMEN,
GEORGIA HOME.

Special Lines:

Guarantee and Indemnity Bond,
Plate Glass and Accident.

OFFICE AT

Deposit Bank,

Either Phone No. 25.

WE MAKE A
SPECIALTY OF
Sharpening Saws,
Lawn Mowers,
Fitting Keys,
Repairing Trunks.

THE BOURBON NEWS.

SWIFT CHAMP., EDITOR AND OWNER

WANTFD.

Five hundred ladies to come to A. J. Winters & Co.'s new store for a souvenir calendar.

Blue Lodge Tonight.

Full attendance is desired at the Masonic Blue Lodge this evening at 7 o'clock sharp.

Flowers.

For funeral designs and all kinds of beautiful cut flowers, grown by Honaker, call on:

1-2t BRUCE HOLLADAY.

Dr. Landman will be at the Windsor Hotel on Tuesday, February 12th. 22t

If it's cut flowers you want, phone Jo. S. Varden. It

Nicholas Kriener Gets Hard Fall.

Mr. Nicholas Kriener, one of our oldest and most prominent citizens, slipped on the icy pavement on Main street, between Fifth and Sixth, yesterday morning and broke the bones in his right wrist.

Fiscal Court Meets Today.

An important meeting of the Bourbon Fiscal Court will be held today. It is thought new some new plan will be inaugurated in reference to repairing and reconstructing the turnpikes of the county. The recent heavy rains have made some of our piles in bad condition. The latest improved machinery for this work will probably be used in the future.

Crap Shooters Arrested.

Sheriff E. P. Clark, and Deputy Sheriff W. P. Talbot went to Hutchinson Wednesday and arrested a number of negroes charged with crap shooting. They gave their names as Governor Jenkins, Bud Scott, Bus Buckner, Jerry Morton, John Williams and Sid Johnson, all of whom gave bond signed by M. R. Jacoby, except Scott, who was brought by the officers to Paris and landed in jail.

J. D. McClinton is the best agent to insure with in Paris. 1-2t

Six Months For Stealing Hat.

In Judge Dundon's court Wednesday Sid Johnson, a negro, was given six months in jail at hard labor for the theft of a hat. A few weeks ago Officer James Burke of the Paris police force, while on his way to jail with Albert Clay, a negro whom he had arrested, was assaulted by Clay and knocked senseless with a pair of brass knucks. Johnson was seen to approach the prostrate officer and picking up his hat made away with it. He was arrested and placed in jail, the case being transferred from the police court to the county court with the above result.

Hospital League Meeting.

The ladies of the Hospital League are earnestly requested to meet at the court house, Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. A full attendance is desired as important business is to be attended to.

Farm Sold.

Silas Cleaver, of Millersburg, sold his farm yesterday, the old Ted Layson place, containing 165 acres, on Millersburg and Cynthiana pike, to Albert Moffit for $91 per acre cash.

Young Men's suits $2.98 at Twin Bros.

Versailles Building Located.

Postmaster John B. Berryman, of Versailles, received notice from Washington that the Government had accepted the site on the northeast corner of Morgan and Main streets, in that city, known as the Dawson and Ammons lots for the Federal building. The price paid was $7,000.

The appropriation of $25,000 for a Government building for a town the size of Versailles, was a personal compliment to Senator Joseph C. S. Blackburn. It has been suggested there that a private subscription be raised to place a life size statue of Senator Blackburn in the hall of this building.

E. & W. collars 4 cents at Twin Bros.

Recommended By Physicians.

Stone Root and Gin is prescribed by all leading physicians as being the best remedy for kidney trouble. We are sole agents for Paris, Ky.

Ifeb 1m T. F. BRANNOON.

Albert Clay Captured.

Albert Clay, the negro desperado, who made a murderous attack on Policeman James Burke, in this city, several weeks ago while Burke was on the way to jail with him, was landed behind the bars of the Paris jail yesterday about noon, having arrived here in charge of Chief of Police Hill and Ex-Chief of Police R. O. Hughes, of Somerset, from Lexington.

Mr. Hughes arrested Clay in a dance hall near Winfield, Tenn. He was located nearby with a gang of negroes working on the Q. & C. railroad. Mr. Hughes informed us that Clay was hired in Cincinnati by an old negro man who goes out after men for the railroad; that he passed through Lexington en route to Tennessee and having located himself up in closet of the coach while passing through Lexington he excited the suspicion of the negro who hired him, and he told Mr. Hughes, his old friend, of his suspicions. Mr. Hughes had a description of Clay and soon rounded him up. Clay says he did not strike Burke, that was another negro who came up from behind, but as there are two witness who saw him make the murderous attack his story won't work.

Mr. Hughes will get the $50 reward offered by the city for Clay's arrest.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. Lida Conway is the guest of Mrs. C. B. Mitchell.

Mr. C. B. Davidson, of Covington, is the guest of his brother-in-law, Mr. S. E. Borland.

Rev. Dr. F. J. Cheek, of Louisville, stopped over here Wednesday to greet his friends while enroute to Danville.

J. W. Scott, a prominent farmer and politician of Boyle county, is here the guest of his aunt, Mrs. G. C. Thompson, of the county.

Mrs. John T. Ireland has arrived home from Memphis, Tenn., where she has been to visit Mr. Ireland, who is there with his racing stable.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Roberts and daughter, Miss Margaret Ferguson have arrived from Alabama, and are guests at present of Mrs. Earl Ferguson, near town. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts will make Bourbon their future home.

The following invitation has been received: "Gamma Iota Chapter of the Sigma Nu Fraternity requests the pleasure of your company at their annual dance Friday evening February 8th, 1907, Merrick Lodge, Lexington, Kentucky."

Mrs. Nicholas Davis and her son, Mr. Henry Davis, are here from Grand Rapids, Mich., to attend the funeral of son and brother, George B. Davis, who was buried yesterday. They are guests of Mrs. D. D. Connor, at the Fordham.

The following deaf mutes attend the funeral of their friend, George B. Davis yesterday afternoon: Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, of this city; R. K. King and R. W. Broaders, of Lexington; B. D. Scott, of Mayslick, and S. B. Lary, of Austerlitz.

Mrs. Dick Marsh and daughter, Mrs. Richard Barnett, Mrs. Georgia Wright, Mrs. B. T. Holt, and Mrs. Morgan Brown, attended the funeral of Mr. Keller Corbin at Lexington Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Corbin was an ex-Bourbon, having formerly resided near Hutchinson. He was a very estimable young man.

Capt. F. P. Webb and wife were in Knoxville, Tenn., Wednesday and Thursday, the former being called there on business. Capt. Webb has been transferred from his run on the L. & N. line, running hereafter from Cincinnati to Knoxville. He brings his first run out tonight from Cincinnati.

Prof. Alfred Butler, of Middletown, O., is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. F. M. Faries. Prof. Butler is an accomplished organist and entertained a number of our music loving citizens with an organ recital at the Christian church Wednesday evening after prayer meeting services. It was a musical treat.

The leading brand of flour now sold is the Red Cross made by E. F. Spears & Sons. 24-tf

Men's suits at Twin Bros', $3.98.

The furniture in City School building, burned January 28, was paid for in cash on the 30th by J. D. McClinton, agent. 1-2t

William Scott Dead.

William Scott, son of the late Joseph Scott, was taken to St. Joseph Hospital, Lexington, Wednesday morning, suffering from tuberculosis, where he died early yesterday morning. His remains was brought to this city yesterday about noon and taken to the home of his sister, Miss Emma Lou Scott, on Main street.

Mr. Scott was aged about 47 years, and was a painter by trade, having industriously worked for a number of years for Mr. O. A. Daugherty, of this city, until his health failed him over a year ago. He was a clever young man and well liked by those who knew him, and it has been often said that he was never known to speak an unkind word about anybody.

His funeral will be held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, services at the grave in Paris cemetery by Elder Carey E. Morgan.

Tobacco Sales.

R. P. Barnett sold to W. T. Overby 15,000 pounds of tobacco at 11 cents straight.

J. Will Thomas sold on the Louisville market 44 hogsheads of tobacco in past few days at 11 to 14 cents.

Cut Flowers.

For the prettiest cut flowers that grow call on Bruce Holladay, agent for Honaker. All kinds of flowers and designs furnished on short notice. 1-2t

City School Expects to Open Monday Morning.

Prof. George W. Chapman and the members of the School Board have been busy since the burning of our handsome school building in trying to find suitable rooms to accommodate the children, so there would be as little time lost as possible.

It was about settled yesterday that the following buildings would be occupied for the time being:

The basement of the court house for High School and Seventh grade.

Sixth grade, in the room over Rumman's Tucker & Co.'s dry goods store on Main, between Seventh and Eighth streets.

Third, Fourth, A Fifth and B Fifth in Dow's storeroom, corner Main and Second streets.

B First and Second in basement of Public Library. A First grade, in the Shy house, opposite the ruins of the school building. This grade has been occupying this house some time past for want of room in the main school building.

The correct amount of insurance held on the building and furniture is $19,500.

All of the above places named have been secured with the exception of the basement of the court house, permission having to be given by the Fiscal Court which will be in session today and pass upon the matter.

We cannot see why any objection should be made by the Magistrates for the use of the basement for this purpose under the circumstances. It is the large children of the school that will be sent there. They will only want the use of it for several months, the children will not be allowed to go into the upper part of the building, and only one session a day is to be held. There will surely be no objections offered by the court.

The Clay-Shackelford Nuptials.

The ceremony uniting in holy bonds of wedlock, Mr. Rhodes Shackelford and Miss Anne Louise Clay was very beautifully and impressively solemnized at the Christian church Tuesday evening, the Rev. Carey E. Morgan officiating.

The church is very handsome and especially in its interior decorations and to these were added the elaborate wedding decorations of Southern smilax, bride roses and carnations. The canopy above the baptismal was heavily draped in smilax and from this ropes of the same green extended down each aisle, to the posts of smilax and ferns entwined among which were hundreds of rose buds, lilies of the valley, hyacinths and carnations.

The pulpit where the bridal party stood was banked in ferns and palms. Graceful ropes of smilax hung from the railing. Behind a screen of the same green sat the harpist, violinist and organist, who rendered sweet music during the evening. At the appointed hour Lohengrin wedding march heralded the coming of the bridal party.

First came the ushers, Mr. John M. Brennan, of Paris, and Mr. J. A. Sullivan, of Richmond, Mr. J. J. Greenleaf, of Lexington, and Mr. W. C. Alford, Lexington, following; then came the bridegroom, Mr. Rhodes Shackelford with his best man, Mr. James C. Stone, of Louisville. Then came the bridesmaids all gowned in beautiful creations of white Paris muslin and lace, carrying bouquets of bride's roses. Miss Kate Alexander and Miss Sarah Shackelford, sister of the groom, came first followed by Miss Helen Bennett and Miss Mary Clay.

From the right of the pulpit the bride came on the arm of her maid of honor, Miss Nancy Clay. The bride was magnificently gowned in an exquisite lace robe of Egyptian handwork. Her only ornaments were handsome pearls, which were heirlooms in the Clay family.

The bride was of the eldest daughter of the Honorable Cassius M. Clay and possesses rare accomplishments and is much admired among a host of friends throughout the bluegrass.

The bridal party was entertained after the wedding by Mr. and Mrs. J. Miller Ward at their handsome home on South Main street.

The going-away dress of the bride was of dark blue cloth.

Mr. and Mrs. Shackelford left on an interurban car for Lexington, where they took the C. & O. train for New York from which point they sail for an extended tour through Europe.

Among the out-of-town guests who attended the wedding were: General and Mrs. Rodger Williams, Mrs. John McClinton, W. C. Alford, Lexington; Hon. and Mrs. Sam H. Stone, Louisville; James C. Stone, Louisville; J. J. Greenleaf, J. A. Sullivan, Richmond; Gov. and Mrs. J. C. W. Beckham Frankfort; Mr. and Mrs. Tutt Burnam, Mrs. Thomas Smith, Miss Bessie Miller, Miss Maud Burnam, Richmond.

The bridal party was entertained after the wedding by Mr. and Mrs. J. Miller Ward at their handsome home on South Main street.

The going-away dress of the bride was of dark blue cloth.

Mr. and Mrs. Shackelford left on an interurban car for Lexington, where they took the C. & O. train for New York from which point they sail for an extended tour through Europe.

Among the out-of-town guests who attended the wedding were: General and Mrs. Rodger Williams, Mrs. John McClinton, W. C. Alford, Lexington; Hon. and Mrs. Sam H. Stone, Louisville; James C. Stone, Louisville; J. J. Greenleaf, J. A. Sullivan, Richmond; Gov. and Mrs. J. C. W. Beckham Frankfort; Mr. and Mrs. Tutt Burnam, Mrs. Thomas Smith, Miss Bessie Miller, Miss Maud Burnam, Richmond.

The bridal party was entertained after the wedding by Mr. and Mrs. J. Miller Ward at their handsome home on South Main street.

The going-away dress of the bride was of dark blue cloth.

Mr. and Mrs. Shackelford left on an interurban car for Lexington, where they took the C. & O. train for New York from which point they sail for an extended tour through Europe.

Among the out-of-town guests who attended the wedding were: General and Mrs. Rodger Williams, Mrs. John McClinton, W. C. Alford, Lexington; Hon. and Mrs. Sam H. Stone, Louisville; James C. Stone, Louisville; J. J. Greenleaf, J. A. Sullivan, Richmond; Gov. and Mrs. J. C. W. Beckham Frankfort; Mr. and Mrs. Tutt Burnam, Mrs. Thomas Smith, Miss Bessie Miller, Miss Maud Burnam, Richmond.

The bridal party was entertained after the wedding by Mr. and Mrs. J. Miller Ward at their handsome home on South Main street.

The going-away dress of the bride was of dark blue cloth.

Mr. and Mrs. Shackelford left on an interurban car for Lexington, where they took the C. & O. train for New York from which point they sail for an extended tour through Europe.

Among the out-of-town guests who attended the wedding were: General and Mrs. Rodger Williams, Mrs. John McClinton, W. C. Alford, Lexington; Hon. and Mrs. Sam H. Stone, Louisville; James C. Stone, Louisville; J. J. Greenleaf, J. A. Sullivan, Richmond; Gov. and Mrs. J. C. W. Beckham Frankfort; Mr. and Mrs. Tutt Burnam, Mrs. Thomas Smith, Miss Bessie Miller, Miss Maud Burnam, Richmond.

The bridal party was entertained after the wedding by Mr. and Mrs. J. Miller Ward at their handsome home on South Main street.

The going-away dress of the bride was of dark blue cloth.

Mr. and Mrs. Shackelford left on an interurban car for Lexington, where they took the C. & O. train for New York from which point they sail for an extended tour through Europe.

Among the out-of-town guests who attended the wedding were: General and Mrs. Rodger Williams, Mrs. John McClinton, W. C. Alford, Lexington; Hon. and Mrs. Sam H. Stone, Louisville; James C. Stone, Louisville; J. J. Greenleaf, J. A. Sullivan, Richmond; Gov. and Mrs. J. C. W. Beckham Frankfort; Mr. and Mrs. Tutt Burnam, Mrs. Thomas Smith, Miss Bessie Miller, Miss Maud Burnam, Richmond.

The bridal party was entertained after the wedding by Mr. and Mrs. J. Miller Ward at their handsome home on South Main street.

The going-away dress of the bride was of dark blue cloth.

Mr. and Mrs. Shackelford left on an interurban car for Lexington, where they took the C. & O. train for New York from which point they sail for an extended tour through Europe.

Among the out-of-town guests who attended the wedding were: General and Mrs. Rodger Williams, Mrs. John McClinton, W. C. Alford, Lexington; Hon. and Mrs. Sam H. Stone, Louisville; James C. Stone, Louisville; J. J. Greenleaf, J. A. Sullivan, Richmond; Gov. and Mrs. J. C. W. Beckham Frankfort; Mr. and Mrs. Tutt Burnam, Mrs. Thomas Smith, Miss Bessie Miller, Miss Maud Burnam, Richmond.

The bridal party was entertained after the wedding by Mr. and Mrs. J. Miller Ward at their handsome home on South Main street.

The going-away dress of the bride was of dark blue cloth.

Mr. and Mrs. Shackelford left on an interurban car for Lexington, where they took the C. & O. train for New York from which point they sail for an extended tour through Europe.

Among the out-of-town guests who attended the wedding were: General and Mrs. Rodger Williams, Mrs. John McClinton, W. C. Alford, Lexington; Hon. and Mrs. Sam H. Stone, Louisville; James C. Stone, Louisville; J. J. Greenleaf, J. A. Sullivan, Richmond; Gov. and Mrs. J. C. W. Beckham Frankfort; Mr. and Mrs. Tutt Burnam, Mrs. Thomas Smith, Miss Bessie Miller, Miss Maud Burnam, Richmond.

The bridal party was entertained after the wedding by Mr. and Mrs. J. Miller Ward at their handsome home on South Main street.

IF YOU TOUCH your tongue to ALUM

and look in the glass—you will see the effect—
You can't help puckering—it makes you pucker.
to think of tasting it!

By the use of so called cheap Baking Powders you take this puckering, injurious Alum right into your system—you injure digestion and ruin your stomach.

AVOID ALUM

Say plainly—

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Royal is made from pure, refined Grape Cream of Tartar—Costs more than Alum but you have the profit of quality, the profit of good health.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Governor—S. W. Hager.
For Lieut.-Governor—South Trimble.
For Attorney-General—J. K. Hendrick.
For Superintendent of Public Instruction—E. A. Gullion.
For Commissioner of Agriculture—J. W. Newman.
For Secretary of State—Hubert Vreeland.
For Auditor—Henry Bosworth.
For Treasurer—Ruby Laffoon.
For Clerk Court of Appeals—John B. Chenault.
For United States Senator—J. C. W. Beckham.

Valuable Ear of Corn.

A single ear of Reid Yellow Dent corn, weighing 19 ounces, sold at the Iowa State College for the phenomenal price of $150, which is at the rate of $3,850 per bushel. Each kernel is worth 13 cents. Dan L. Pascal, of DeWitt, a member of the Iowa Corn Growers' Association, who grew this remarkable ear, was its purchaser at the sale, which has eclipsed all previous prices for corn and established a world's record.

The great champion single ear last year brought only $11, and was grown by H. J. Ross, of Farragut, Ia. The second grand championship last year was won by Fred Hethershaw, of Des Moines, and sold for $7. The grand championship last year were those belonging to O. J. Easton, of Whitney, and sold for $30, which at that time was the highest price ever paid for that amount of seed corn.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of catarrh that can not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by his firm.

WALDING, KINNAN & MARVIN,
Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.

Halls Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75 cents per bottle. Sold by all druggists.

Take Halls Family Pills for constipation. 24nov

The Best and Cheapest.

You can get the finest of flowers for funerals, wddings, parties, etc., from Miss Margaret Toolen. She represents the best of florists. Prices reasonable. 20-tf

William's Carbolic Salve With Arnica and Witch Hazel.

The best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Sore Rheum, Tetter, Chapped Hands, and all skin eruptions. It is guaranteed to give satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25¢ by Druggists.

WILLIAMS M'F'G. CO., Props., Cleveland, O.

For sale by Oberdorfer.

Engraving.

If you want the very latest style in engraved cards, leave your order at this office.

William's Kidney Pills.

Have you neglected your Kidneys? Have you overworked your nervous system and caused trouble with your Kidneys and Bladder? Have you pains in the loins, side, back, groins and bladder? Have you a flabby appearance of the face, especially under the eyes? Too frequent desire to pass urine? If so, William's Kidney Pills will cure you. Sample free. By mail 50 cents. Sold by Oberdorfer.

WILLIAMS M'F'G. CO., Props., Cleveland, O.

Reasonable Prices.

Miss Margaret Toolen invites all her old customers to call on her before purchasing flowers for the holidays. She orders all kinds of cut flowers and potted plants at reasonable prices. 20-tf

Woman Doctor Indicted.

Dr. Sarah Murphy was Saturday indicted for the wilful murder of Katie Bryant, the Buffalo, Ky., girl who died in Louisville from a criminal operation, and Horace Lampton, a traveling salesman, of Dayton, O., was indicted as an accessory before the fact for procuring the operation.

New Machine Shop.

Mr. Joseph Newhall, the expert machinist, has made arrangements with Mr. J. J. Connally the plumber, to open an up-to-date machine shop in the rear of his plumbing shop. His phone will be No. 180 and he invites the patronage of everyone who are in need of an expert to look after their machinery.

Congress.

The principal subject for consideration in the House during the week will be the River and Harbor Appropriation Bill, and it is expected to consume several days' time. A strenuous effort will be made by the combined Illinois and Missouri delegations to secure the incorporation of the provisions for a fourteen-foot waterway from Lake Michigan to the Mississippi river.

A Trust Scheme.

Charges that the Copper Trust is creating an artificial scarcity of the metal by storing vast quantities in certain places, and that it is even keeping a large amount on board a vessel as ballast, having it carried about from place to place, without destination, are embodied in affidavits which have been sent to Attorney General Bonaparte at Washington.

13,000,000 Possible Soldiers.

More than 13,000,000 men in the United States are available for military service, according to the report of the military secretary of the army concerning the militia, which has just been made public. Of this number 112,390 men are organized in State militia.

New York leads the list in the number of men available for duty, having 1,294,000. Ohio is second with 1,035,110; Illinois third with 1,089,559, and Pennsylvania fourth with 1,017,000.

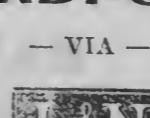

In the organized militia, New York leads with 14,711. Pennsylvania is next with 9,836 and Illinois follows third, with 6,616.

The report includes the comments of officers who inspected the various state organizations. In nearly all cases they urge larger appropriation and better equipment for the militia.

Special Low Rates

— TO —

MARDI-GRAS

NEW ORLEANS,

MOBILE,

PENSACOLA,

Rate $20.25 ROUND TRIP.

TICKETS ON SALE

February 6 to 11, Inclusive.

Good returning until Feb. 16. By depositing tickets with Special Agent, upon payment of 50 cents, extention of limit can be secured until March 2, 1907. Stop-overs in both directions south of Owling Green, Ky.

For further particulars call on
W. H. HARRIS, Agent,
D. S. JORDAN, T. A.

DELIBERATE SUICIDE.

Why It Should Excite More Horror Than Any Other Murder.

As to its moral aspects, suicide is manifestly forbidden by the divine law. One of the commandments of the Decalogue declares, "Thou shalt not kill." To make the law as comprehensive as possible it is not said, "Thou shalt not kill thy neighbor," which qualifying phrase is employed in some of the other commandments—as, for instance, "Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor;" "Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house." The prohibition to kill is therefore absolute. It forbids the taking of human life, whether by suicide or homicide.

There is another commandment which says, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." Now, the love which we owe to our neighbor forbids us to slay him, and therefore the love which we owe to ourselves forbids us to compass our own death. If the law allowed us to kill ourselves, while forbidding us to kill our neighbor, our love for our neighbor would not be equal, but superior, to our love for ourselves.

Nay, I hold that suicide is a more revolting sin than the killing of another. The closer the ties of relationship between the murderer and his victim the more atrocious is the crime. In the estimation of mankind, a parricide, or matricide, or fratricide, or uxoricide, is a more shocking criminal than an ordinary homicide. And as a man has more intimate relations to himself than to a parent or brother or wife, his deliberate self destruction should excite more horror than the murder of a parent, brother or wife.—Cardinal Gibbons in Century.

BEECHER'S ONLY POEM.

The Verses Were Always Kept Sacred by Mrs. Beecher.

It was related by Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher that during their courtship Mr. Beecher once "dropped into poetry" and wrote a few lines of verse teeming with affection for his sweetheart. But the verses were always kept sacred by Mrs. Beecher, and nothing could win them from her. One day Mr. and Mrs. Beecher were in the office of Robert Bonner, the publisher.

"Why don't you write a poem, Beecher?" said Mr. Bonner.

"He did once," said Mrs. Beecher.
"Recite it for me, won't you, Mrs. Beecher?"

But the eyes of the great preacher were riveted on his wife, and she knew that he meant silence.

"Come," said Mr. Bonner, "I'll give you $5,000 if you will recite that poem to me," addressing Mrs. Beecher.

"Why, it ran"—quickly said Mrs. Beecher.

"Eunice!" simply said Mr. Beecher.

And, although Robert Bonner afterward offered to double the sum first offered, he never got the poem from Mrs. Beecher. It had been hidden away by Mrs. Beecher and cherished as one of the dearest treasures her husband left her.

Congress.

"Antique Persian rugs" said the rug salesmen, "are dyed with vegetable dyes; the new ones are dyed with animal dyes. There's a great difference. Vegetable dyes are fifty or sixty times more expensive than anilines, and they give a color that is literally imperishable, a color that keeps growing richer and richer till the rug falls to pieces. Anilines, made out of coal tar, look well enough at first, but they fade. When a vegetable red or blue would be at its best an aniline red or blue would be nearly white. We civilized people harmed the Chinese by introducing our cheap opium among them, and now we have equally harmed the Persian rug by introducing our cheap anilines among the rug weavers."

Persian Rugs.

Since hydrophobia is transmitted by inoculation and its virus resides in the saliva of its victim, the only absolute safeguard is to keep dogs muzzled when at large. A muzzle is a nuisance no doubt and in the immense majority of cases needless, for almost invariably the mischief maker is the stray cur, belonging to no one in particular and coming from nobody knows where. But it seems impracticable to frame an effective regulation for the protection of the public from such irresponsible and dangerous creatures without making it applicable to all dogs.—New York Tribune.

The Hydrophobia Menace.

Since hydrophobia is transmitted by inoculation and its virus resides in the saliva of its victim, the only absolute safeguard is to keep dogs muzzled when at large. A muzzle is a nuisance no doubt and in the immense majority of cases needless, for almost invariably the mischief maker is the stray cur, belonging to no one in particular and coming from nobody knows where. But it seems impracticable to frame an effective regulation for the protection of the public from such irresponsible and dangerous creatures without making it applicable to all dogs.—New York Tribune.

Limit of Economy.

"I don't mind a young man economizing when he is out with me," sighed the girl, "but it seems to me that when he takes you in a penny in the slot machine parlor, drops a penny in a slot and hands you one of the ear things while he takes the other the limit has just about been reached. Of course you can hear the opera almost as well with one ear, but how does it look?"—New York Press.

Charity.

The lady was making some remarks about the kind of clothes some other ladies at church had on.

"The finest garment a woman can wear," said her husband, "is the mantle of charity."

"Yes," she snapped, "and it's about the only one some husbands want their wives to wear."

The Fun of It.

"Why did you do that?" demanded the teacher.

"Oh, just for fun," replied Tommy.

"But didn't you know it was against the rules?"

"Sure! Dat's where de fun comes in,"—Philadelphia Press.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable.

For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a tea-spoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address:

F. J. CHENEY & CO.,
Toledo, Ohio.

I have a large stock of the famous Block Gas Lamps. Lamp and mantle complete, only 50 cents.

J. J. CONNELLY.

One Bluegrass Traction Company Schedule December 1906.

Cars leave Lexington for Georgetown 6 a. m. and every hour until 8 p. m. 9:30 and 11 p. m.

Cars leave Lexington for Versailles 6 a. m. and every hour until 8 p. m. 9:30 and 11 p. m.

Cars leave Lexington for Paris 6 a. m. and every hour until 7 p. m. 9 and 11 p. m.

Cars leave Georgetown for Lexington 6 a. m. and every hour until 7 p. m. 8:45 and 10:15 p. m.

Cars leave Versailles for Lexington 6 a. m. and every hour until 7 p. m. 8:45 and 10:15 p. m.

Cars leave Paris for Lexington 6 a. m. and every hour until 8 p. m. and 10 p. m.

Good News to Women.

Father William's Indian Tea Natives Remedy, is becoming the most popular Female Remedy in use.

Pale, Weak, Nervous, Delicate Women suffering from these weaknesses and diseases, peculiar to their sex, will find in Father William's Indian Tea a wonderful Tonic and Regulator. It quiets the Nerves, puts on flesh, gives strength and elasticity to the step, brightens the eyes, clears the complexion and makes you well and strong again. Tea or Tablets, 20 cents. For sale by W. T. Brooks.

A Peep

Into our Show Window is like getting a glimpse into Fairyland. You are always sure of seeing the prettiest and latest novelties in the Jewelry, Silverware and Cut Glass lines. Of course the window only contains a small sample of what may be seen in the store.

Louis Hooge.

Jeweler and Silversmith,
334 Main Street, - - Paris, Ky.

LUMAN & ADCOCK

Are Receiving Daily Everything That Is New and Novel

In the Line of

Furniture, Carpets and Stoves.

It will be to your interest to look at our immense stock.

CASH OR CREDIT. Easy Payments.

ELKS' BUILDING, - - - PARIS, KY.

STALLIONS IN SERVICE

"It is Always a Jay Bird."

Maplehurst Stock Farm.

LOCANDA 2:02,

A

HEART of GOLD

A St. Valentine's Day Story
By HOWARD FIELDING.

Copyright, 1906, by Charles W. Hooke.

I PAUSED outside the door of Austen's studio and fixed a dollar bill so that a corner of it would stick out of my waistcoat pocket. There was no use asking him whether he needed money. He would always repel the insinuation, even when he hadn't had any luncheon and was fierce eyed with hunger. Neither could he be caught by an open display of coin or bills, but if a bit of money was in sight and Austen didn't know that the owner thereof was aware of it he would betray his need by occasional glances full of gentle and pathetic longing.

Let me hasten to say that Austen was not a failure in the ordinary, old fashioned way. He used to make a good living from illustrations, cover designs and the better kind of potboiling in general, but he had a serious illness, and while he lay unconscious some of his friends became overanxious and called in too much medical talent. In the present state of the world Austen might better have died, perhaps, than have contracted such a heavy debt. He paid it and hadn't a penny with which to begin work.

Conditions have changed in the last ten or fifteen years, and capital is essential to the artist. Life presses him so hard that he can't both work and live unless he has money in the bank or enjoys some form of special favor from those who have. Otherwise he will be like a swimmer in an undertow—the best that he can hope for is to keep his nose above water.

When I entered the studio, Austen was admiring the last fruit of his own toil. It was a little thing in oil, a girl looking at a shield which bore a device of a heart of gold and a scroll in which one could discover the date Feb. 14.

I took it to be a cover design for a February issue of a magazine or for some special purpose incident to St. Valentine's day, and I deplored the waste of time. It was then the tenth day of the shortest month, and this thing could not be used by anybody until next year.

"What do you think of it?" he asked.

"It's a beauty," I replied. "You'll sell it—if you live."

"No, I won't," said he, with decision. "I didn't make it to sell."

My mouth was open to reply that he shouldn't make anything for any other purpose when the picture itself checked me. A flash of memory illuminated my understanding.

"Isn't that the girl—I saw her only once—the girl who—"

"Yes," said he, interrupting. "It is the girl who makes all other girls look like—like the crude and meaningless objects which I usually draw when I try to draw girls. But this is different, isn't it?"

"My boy, you are right," said I. "This is the only genuine, and all others are base imitations. What are you going to do with it?"

"I shall commit the gross absurdity of sending it to her as a valentine," said he. "Wish I could afford a frame, but I can't. The express charges will wind me up. In fact"—His eye at that moment lighted upon the green bait protruding from my waistcoat pocket, and he gave a little gasp as a man sometimes will when his stomach is empty.

"However," he continued, "she won't be bound to go to the expense of framing it. She can ask the butler to set it in the back cellar just as it is and now adopt when we speak of the rich, I honestly thought that it would be a double error for Austen to send this remarkable valentine to Miss Copeland. In the first place, he couldn't afford to do so, for the picture was amazingly good, and, with a slight suppression of the likeness, would certainly be salable some time. In the second place, it could not fail to evoke an answer from Miss Copeland and thus revive an acquaintance which could only result in pain and disappointment to my friend.

"I'M GLAD YOU PUT ME ON TO THIS," HE SAID.

"Billy," said I, "you mustn't commit this folly. Here's the best thing you have ever done, and you ought to work it so that you can set yourself on your feet again."

"Yes?" said he. "How hard do you suppose the express company will swat me to take this out to Morristown? And again he eyed the corner of my dollar.

I argued the case with him, but I might as well have addressed my remarks to the jointed dummy of wood which he used as a model. The best I could do was to persuade him to hold the picture two or three days before sending it. He had intended to ship it right away, in fear lest the landlord might do something disagreeable in the way of padlocking the door or otherwise attempting to collect the rent by violence.

I lent Austen the dollar, and while he was holding it in his hand and contemplating it with a truculent stare I deftly picked the inside breast pocket of his waistcoat, which he had fastened to the bookcase with a thumb tack. From this pocket I drew an envelope containing all that was left of Austen's payable possessions, and I succeeded in getting the ticket for a fine suit of clothes which he had bought just before his illness. Then, having restored the envelope with the remainder of its contents, I departed hastily.

After visiting the pawnbroker's and a little tailor's shop I called upon the art editor of one of our leading magazines, and, having justified my visit by some rather neat lying, I said to him: "Who's buying Harry Austen's stuff now?"

" Didn't know anybody was," he replied.

" You want to wake up," said I. "He has caught on."

" How do you mean?" said he.

" He's been doing some swell stuff," I replied, " and it isn't for sale. When I was in his studio this afternoon there was a man trying to induce him to sell a cover design—splendid thing it was, too—and Austen wouldn't let go."

" Did he say it was ordered?"

" No," said I. " He could sell it, but he won't. He's feeling pretty sure of himself these days. I shouldn't be surprised if your friends across the square were stocking up with some of his work."

" Tell him to come down here and see me," said the editor.

" He won't," said I. " He's got something else on his mind."

The editor drummed on his table and whistled softly. I was afraid to say a word more and instantly took my departure.

I went across the square to those "friends" of the editor whom I had mentioned to him. There I found, of course, another magazine's art editor, and to him I told the same tale. Then I met a good fellow on the street who knew Austen, and I prevailed upon him to carry my story into two other publishing houses.

About luncheon the next day I went to the building where Austen has his studio and nearly ran into my friend and art editor No. 1. They were going out to luncheon together on the A. E.'s treat, which he would subsequently work into an expensive bill. I dodged behind the elevator shaft and then followed cautiously. When I had trailed them to a restaurant, I ran over to get art editor No. 2 and brought him to that same chophouse.

" By jingo!" I whispered as we came in. " That accounts for it."

He looked across to where Austen and art editor No. 1 were sitting, and then he drew a long breath.

" I'm glad you put me on to this," he said. " Austen must be right in it. This is the first time in a year that I've seen him with his trousers pressed."

I blessed myself for my visit to the pawnbroker and the little tailor and also thanked Providence that I had put a two dollar bill into the pocket of the trousers. Otherwise Austen might have pawned the suit again when the tailor brought it around to the studio.

About 5 o'clock that afternoon I dropped in upon Austen. He was smoking a good cigar and sketching a design in charcoal on a canvas.

He shut his teeth hard upon the cigar and looked at me with half shut eyes.

" Well, blast your bloomin' top lights, they didn't get it," said he.

" Who didn't get what?" said I.

" I've had three of 'em here today," he responded. " Went to lunch with Harrison. Yes, yes; you were there. I forgot. Well, after lunch we came back here, and Harrison made another play for my valentine. Actually offered me cash, and he tried to find out what I was going to do with it. Didn't recognize the portrait. Thought I'd got a new model, confound him. After he was gone Jarreau appeared. I think he'd been waiting around outside."

Jarreau was the art editor whom I had taken to luncheon.

" I had a similar circus with him, except that he was sure that my pie was for Harrison," he continued.

" Well—a—well! He offered cash too.

If I hadn't just eaten a full meal the temptation would have killed me."

" Good clothes sustain man, too," said I, and he grinned at me.

Markham was in later," said he. "He was very easy."

Markham was one of the men whom my emissary had seen.

" And you didn't sell?" I asked.

" Not for a million dollars. Sell her? I guess not. I agreed after considerable persuasion—and he grinned with great enjoyment—"to do something else for the gentlemen. They agreed to pay cash—because they thought I didn't need it, shiver their blasted timbers!"

" But the valentine goes," he added.

" Nothing can stop that now. I heart of gold! The dross of this world cannot

"I'M GLAD YOU PUT ME ON TO THIS," HE SAID.

now adopt when we speak of the rich,

I honestly thought that it would be a double error for Austen to send this remarkable valentine to Miss Copeland.

In the first place, he couldn't afford to do so, for the picture was amazingly good, and, with a slight suppression of the likeness, would certainly be salable some time. In the second place, it could not fail to evoke an answer from Miss Copeland and thus revive an acquaintance which could only result in pain and disappointment to my friend.

"Good clothes sustain man, too," said I, and he grinned at me.

Markham was in later," said he. "He was very easy."

Markham was one of the men whom my emissary had seen.

" And you didn't sell?" I asked.

" Not for a million dollars. Sell her? I guess not. I agreed after considerable persuasion—and he grinned with great enjoyment—"to do something else for the gentlemen. They agreed to pay cash—because they thought I didn't need it, shiver their blasted timbers!"

" But the valentine goes," he added.

" Nothing can stop that now. I heart of gold! The dross of this world cannot

now adopt when we speak of the rich,

I honestly thought that it would be a double error for Austen to send this remarkable valentine to Miss Copeland.

In the first place, he couldn't afford to do so, for the picture was amazingly good, and, with a slight suppression of the likeness, would certainly be salable some time. In the second place, it could not fail to evoke an answer from Miss Copeland and thus revive an acquaintance which could only result in pain and disappointment to my friend.

"Good clothes sustain man, too," said I, and he grinned at me.

Markham was in later," said he. "He was very easy."

Markham was one of the men whom my emissary had seen.

" And you didn't sell?" I asked.

" Not for a million dollars. Sell her? I guess not. I agreed after considerable persuasion—and he grinned with great enjoyment—"to do something else for the gentlemen. They agreed to pay cash—because they thought I didn't need it, shiver their blasted timbers!"

" But the valentine goes," he added.

" Nothing can stop that now. I heart of gold! The dross of this world cannot

now adopt when we speak of the rich,

I honestly thought that it would be a double error for Austen to send this remarkable valentine to Miss Copeland.

In the first place, he couldn't afford to do so, for the picture was amazingly good, and, with a slight suppression of the likeness, would certainly be salable some time. In the second place, it could not fail to evoke an answer from Miss Copeland and thus revive an acquaintance which could only result in pain and disappointment to my friend.

"Good clothes sustain man, too," said I, and he grinned at me.

Markham was in later," said he. "He was very easy."

Markham was one of the men whom my emissary had seen.

" And you didn't sell?" I asked.

" Not for a million dollars. Sell her? I guess not. I agreed after considerable persuasion—and he grinned with great enjoyment—"to do something else for the gentlemen. They agreed to pay cash—because they thought I didn't need it, shiver their blasted timbers!"

" But the valentine goes," he added.

" Nothing can stop that now. I heart of gold! The dross of this world cannot

now adopt when we speak of the rich,

I honestly thought that it would be a double error for Austen to send this remarkable valentine to Miss Copeland.

In the first place, he couldn't afford to do so, for the picture was amazingly good, and, with a slight suppression of the likeness, would certainly be salable some time. In the second place, it could not fail to evoke an answer from Miss Copeland and thus revive an acquaintance which could only result in pain and disappointment to my friend.

"Good clothes sustain man, too," said I, and he grinned at me.

Markham was in later," said he. "He was very easy."

Markham was one of the men whom my emissary had seen.

" And you didn't sell?" I asked.

" Not for a million dollars. Sell her? I guess not. I agreed after considerable persuasion—and he grinned with great enjoyment—"to do something else for the gentlemen. They agreed to pay cash—because they thought I didn't need it, shiver their blasted timbers!"

" But the valentine goes," he added.

" Nothing can stop that now. I heart of gold! The dross of this world cannot

now adopt when we speak of the rich,

I honestly thought that it would be a double error for Austen to send this remarkable valentine to Miss Copeland.

In the first place, he couldn't afford to do so, for the picture was amazingly good, and, with a slight suppression of the likeness, would certainly be salable some time. In the second place, it could not fail to evoke an answer from Miss Copeland and thus revive an acquaintance which could only result in pain and disappointment to my friend.

"Good clothes sustain man, too," said I, and he grinned at me.

Markham was in later," said he. "He was very easy."

Markham was one of the men whom my emissary had seen.

" And you didn't sell?" I asked.

" Not for a million dollars. Sell her? I guess not. I agreed after considerable persuasion—and he grinned with great enjoyment—"to do something else for the gentlemen. They agreed to pay cash—because they thought I didn't need it, shiver their blasted timbers!"

" But the valentine goes," he added.

" Nothing can stop that now. I heart of gold! The dross of this world cannot

now adopt when we speak of the rich,

I honestly thought that it would be a double error for Austen to send this remarkable valentine to Miss Copeland.

In the first place, he couldn't afford to do so, for the picture was amazingly good, and, with a slight suppression of the likeness, would certainly be salable some time. In the second place, it could not fail to evoke an answer from Miss Copeland and thus revive an acquaintance which could only result in pain and disappointment to my friend.

"Good clothes sustain man, too," said I, and he grinned at me.

Markham was in later," said he. "He was very easy."

Markham was one of the men whom my emissary had seen.

" And you didn't sell?" I asked.

" Not for a million dollars. Sell her? I guess not. I agreed after considerable persuasion—and he grinned with great enjoyment—"to do something else for the gentlemen. They agreed to pay cash—because they thought I didn't need it, shiver their blasted timbers!"

" But the valentine goes," he added.

" Nothing can stop that now. I heart of gold! The dross of this world cannot

now adopt when we speak of the rich,

I honestly thought that it would be a double error for Austen to send this remarkable valentine to Miss Copeland.

In the first place, he couldn't afford to do so, for the picture was amazingly good, and, with a slight suppression of the likeness, would certainly be salable some time. In the second place, it could not fail to evoke an answer from Miss Copeland and thus revive an acquaintance which could only result in pain and disappointment to my friend.

"Good clothes sustain man, too," said

Endorsed By the County.

"The most popular remedy in Otsego county, and the best friend of my family," writes Wm. M. Deitz, editor and publisher of the Otsego Journal; Gilbertsville, N. Y., "is Dr. King's New Discovery. It has proved to be an infallible cure for coughs and colds, making short work on the worst of them. We always keep a bottle in the house. I believe it to be the most valuable prescription known for lung and throat diseases." Guaranteed to never disappoint the taker by Chester the druggist. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Old Josh Newhall, the Second.

Everyone remembers old man Newhall, the famous machinist, and will be glad to know that his son, Joe Newhall, has decided to again locate in Paris. His office is with J. J. Connelly, the plumber. Phone 180. Call Joe up if your machinery needs repairing. 2t

The Limit of Life.

The most eminent medical scientists are unanimous in the conclusion that the generally accepted limitation of human life is many years below the attainment possible with the advanced knowledge of which the race is now possessed. The critical period, that determines its duration, seems to be between 50 and 60; the proper care of the body during this decade cannot be too strongly urged; carelessness then being fatal to longevity. Nature's best helper after 50 is Electric Bitters, the scientific tonic medicine that revitalizes every organ of the body. Guaranteed by Oberdorfer, the druggist. 50 cents

Everybody Should Know.

Says C. G. Hays, a prominent business man of Bluff, Mo., that Buckle's Arnica Salve is the quickest and surest healing salve ever applied to a sore, burn or wound, or to a case of piles. "I've used it and know what I'm talking about." Guaranteed by Oberdorfer, the druggist, 25 cents.

4 MILLION DOLLARS PER YEAR

Is the amount by which I have increased my annual income since my 10,000 men became clerks, mechanics and salesmen.

Country Boys and Girls, who were earning $2 to $3 per month, I trained them to hold and sell for me, and are now getting now $20 to $30 per month. I can do the same for you.

My Bookkeepers, Stenographers and Telegraphers get the best paying positions because they are the best trained. They are worth more to their employers. The States, Railroads and large corporations pay more of my graduates than I can supply.

The South is the Land of Opportunity. No individuals of instruction have ever received Medals and Diplomas of Honor at two National Expositions. It pays to

ATTEND THE BEST COLLEGE

Schools fit for poor work and poor pay. If you want to attend the best, $5 covers cost of tuition, books and board for a business course. Write for my free booklet on

BEST BUSINESS OPENINGS

Tells what positions pay best. What to avoid. How every young man and woman should be educated for doing business. It may be worth thousands of dollars to you to bring you out on the right road to success. I send free on request. Write to me.

PROF. WILBUR R. SMITH, Pres.
COMMERCIAL COLLEGE KY. UNIVERSITY

LEXINGTON, KY.

Many from Paris and adjoining towns attend the above College daily by cheap monthly tickets over Interurban and railroads.

THE CUMBERLAND Telephone & Telegraph Co.
INCORPORATED.

Has issued the following Statement of its business for December, and the increase in the number of its subscribers is shown as follows:

Number Subscribers Dec. 1, 1906.....	163,362
Number added during month.....	4,631
Number discontinued.....	2,803
Net increase for month.....	1,828

Total number subscribers Jan. 1, 1907..... 165,190

Going Him One Better.*ANCIENT FINANCE.*Trading in the Days Before Money Was in Circulation.

Assyria, with her immense hosts and her spacious and magnificent cities, had no money; Egypt—opulent, populous and abundant Egypt—had no money; ancient Persia, before the age of the first Darius, had no money; the early Hebrews, and even during the most prosperous period of the age of Solomon and down to the time of Juhas Macabaeus, were without money; Etruria from first to last was without money; Rome was without money to the time of Servius Tullius, and the Greeks of the heroic ages were equally destitute of money. Among all those nations gold and silver, when used in barter, were weighed out by the scales, as when Abraham purchased the cave of Machpelah. He weighed to Ephron the silver which he had named in the audience of the sons of Heth."

Anciently there was no money in Arabia, or the riches of the patriarch Job would not have been estimated by his camels, oxen and she asses, India, Persia, Assyria, Judaea, Egypt, Greece, Etruria, Rome, the nations of Asia Minor, including Tyre and its dependencies, all arrived at civilization and comfort without the current use of cash and carried on their extensive mercantile and manufacturing transactions merely by bartering commodities in kind, bullion being reckoned among those commodities. These nations were populous almost beyond credibility and transported their produce, manufactures and other merchandise in ships of Tyre and Tarshish from Ophir and the utmost Indian isle (Ceylon) to Gaul and the "tin islands" of Scilly or Vigo.—New York Press.

Good For Evil.

There are some people who turn gray, but do not grow hoary; whose faces are furrowed, but not wrinkled; whose hearts are sorely wounded in many places, but are not dead. There is a youth that bids defiance to old age, and there is a kindness which laughs at the world's usage. These are they who have returned good for evil. Whom the gods love die young, and they die young because they never grow old.—Selected.

Awkwardly Put.

This is one of the things one would rather have put differently: Mr. Bumbleup (at fancy dress ball)—I must apologize for coming in ordinary evening dress. Hostess—Well, you really have the advantage of us. We're all looking more foolish than usual, and you're not—I punch.

Little Thinking.

Mr. Borely (who has been criticizing)—Now, don't be offended. You know, I always say what I think. Miss Cutting—You don't talk much, do you, Mr. Borely?—Illustrated Bits.

It is only reason that teaches silence. The heart teaches us to speak.—Rich-

Do Ostriches Ever Die?

Nothing is positively known as to how long an ostrich will live. Some writers claim that it will live 100 years. Ostriches which are known to have been in captivity for forty years are still breeding and producing feathers. It is the experience of Arkansas farmers that, among the birds having good nutritious green feed, health seldom occurs except as the result of accident. A dog or other small animal will sometimes frighten ostriches and cause them to run into the fence, which may result in a broken leg. When this happens the bird may as well be killed, as few ever recover from such an injury.—National Geographic Magazine.

Nothing is more foolish, more positively wicked, than to drag the skeletons of the past, the hideous images, the foolish deeds, the unfortunate experiences of the past into today's work to mar and spoil it. There are plenty of people who have been failures up to the present moment who could do wonders in the future if they could only forget the past and start anew.—Success.

His Rebuke.

Small Johnny (after the slipper exercise)—I'm glad I ain't a girl. Mamma—Why? Small Johnny—Cause I'd be ashamed to grow up into a woman and punish little boys like me.

A married man thinks he could have saved a lot of money had he remained a bachelor, but he couldn't.—Chicago News.

To Be Buried Side By Side.

Milton Willett and Gip Hoskins, aged fifteen and fourteen respectively, were drowned in a slough near Henderson, Ky. They were skating when the ice gave way, precipitating them in ten feet of water. Hoskins was the first to go under and Willett went to the rescue. Hoskins grabbed Willett and both found watery graves clasped together. They will be buried side by side.

Coffee Social.

The ladies of the Catholic church will give a Coffee Social at their room in the A. O. U. W. hall Wednesday, February 6, 1907, at 8 p. m. Admission 50 cents.

Railroad Indicted for Manslaughter.

Charles H. Sanford, Commonwealth's Attorney at New Castle, Ky., has procured an indictment by the grand jury of the Henry Circuit Court against the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company, on the charge of involuntary manslaughter. This is the first time that an indictment on that charge was ever returned against a railroad in Kentucky.

The indictment is founded on the killing of Press Corbin in a railroad collision on the road of the accused company, which occurred several months ago. If the indictment can be sustained on the charge in the Circuit and Appellate courts, it will amount to a radical departure in criminal practice, and will no doubt affect the civil practice so far as damage suits are concerned.

Public Sale

—CF—

Stock, Crop, & Implements.

Having sold my farm, known as the George Hill place, near Centerville, I will sell at public auction at that place, on

Thursday, February 14, '07,

beginning at 10 o'clock a. m., the following stock, crop, implements, etc.: 300 bales extra nice timothy hay; 100 bales mixed hay; 2 stacks of mixed hay; 2 two-horse hay rakes; 1 Oliver Chilled break plow; 1 two-horse cultivator; 2 double shovel plows; 1 two-horse wagon; 1 good feed sled;

1 Superior wheat drill, corn planter and marker; 1 tobacco setter, with fertilizer attachment; 1 extra grind stone; two sets of brace bits; 2 mowing scythes, corn sheller; 1 cross-cut and hand saw; ax; hay knife; wire stretchers; barn roofing; post diggers; 1 broad sow and seven shoots; two fat heifers and fat hog; 5 head of work horses; 1 mule and gears; 20 head sheep; 4 milch cows; 2 sets of nice furniture; farm bell, etc.

N. H. BAYLESS,
A. T. Forsyth, Auctioneer. If needed

City Ordinance.

AN ORDINANCE PROHIBITING THE KEEPING OF CATTLE WITHIN THE CORPORATE LIMITS OF THE CITY OF PARIS, KENTUCKY.

Be it ordained by the Mayor and Board of Council by the City of Paris, Kentucky:

It shall be unlawful for any person, company or corporation to keep cattle for the purpose of feeding, or fattening them, within the corporate limits of the City of Paris, Kentucky.

Any person, company, or corporation violating the provisions of this ordinance shall be fined not less than Ten dollars ($10.00) nor more than Fifty dollars ($50.00) for each offense, and each day such cattle are kept within the City shall constitute a separate offense.

Attest: A. C. ADAIR,
City Clerk.
JAMES M. O'BRIEN,
Mayor.

Wanted.

We are in the market for a limited quantity of corn.
4-tf E. F. SPEARS & SONS.

Little Thing to be Fired For.

Because he spanked his wife with a slipper, August M. Thorson, a box maker, was fined $100 in the Kansas City Police Court Wednesday. She said it was the second time he had spanked her in the same way in their two years of wedded life.

"He gave me $5 Saturday morning to pay on our furniture bill," said Mrs. Thorson. "Saturday night he slipped the bill out of my purse and spent $2.50 of it at a saloon. When I protested he turned me over his knee, and spanked me hard with a slipper."

Just to think of a man being fined $100 for giving his wife a little spanking, it's too bad. What will finally become of the poor man anyway. Looks like he hasn't got a chance.

*COME TO THE Texas Panhandle!

Hundreds and Thousands of Men are Making Fortunes in the opening and Development of this Wonderful, Rich New Country.

Don't you want some of this money? You can share in it if you will. We run a big excursion to Stratford, County Seat of Sherman County, Texas, the first and third Tuesdays of every month. Next one goes Tuesday, January 15. You can for a small expense, go along and see this great Panhandle for yourself. We will show you splendid money-making opportunities for either investment or a home. The money is there for you to make. The railroads give you a low rate. We do all we can to help you get it. But it all depends on whether you go to see it or not. So it's "up to you." If you go we will offer you the best money-making opportunities you ever saw.

The soil is deep and rich. The surface is level and unbroken. Settlers who go there now will be wealthy men in a few years. You will see crops that will amaze you. You can get absolutely reliable information from the farmers and others who live there. The climate is ideal, winter and summer. Free from malaria, rheumatism, bronchial, catarrh and lung troubles.

This land is bound to double in price in a very short time. It makes from 75 to 100 per cent. profit on present prices, either in small grain or stock-raising. If you want to share in the big profits being made in the opening and development of this grand new country, go NOW. Make up your mind to-day that you will go next week and see it for yourself.

Call on or see Paris Manager for BRANIGAR LAND CO., Stratford, Texas.

A Word To the Cash-Buying People of Paris and Bourbon County.

Here is an opportunity of a lifetime to purchase from

TWIN BROS.,

703 Main Street,

All their MEN'S CLOTHING, BOYS' CLOTHING, MEN'S OVERCOATS, Men's and Boys' HIGH GRADE SHOES, Men's and Boys' HATS, UNDERWEAR, SHIRTS, TRUNKS, SUIT CASES, ETC. In fact everything that is sold in a first-class clothing and shoe store

At Prices Less Than the Manufacturers' Cost.

Our Loss is Your Gain. We want the Money, you want the Goods. They will be sold for SPOT CASH ONLY.

THIS SALE LASTS FOR TEN DAYS ONLY.

Remember Place and Date of Sale:

TWIN BROS. CLOTHING AND SHOE STORE,
703 Main St., Next to Fee's Grocery.

JANUARY 19th TO JANUARY 29th, INCLUSIVE

Bring Your Family. Bring Your Friends.

FINAL! AT ITS END! IS THE GREATEST MONEY SAVING SALE EVER INAUGURATED.

The Last and Final Cut of the Miami Shoe Company Fire Sale.

We have received orders to clean out every pair of Shoes and Rubbers of the Miami Shoe Company's Stock; to make prices that will move them at once. We have carried out our orders to the letter. To make sure of a clean sweep we have made a startling cut, one that should empty our store of every pair of these shoes. We have marked them at prices that would not pay for the raw material, and at prices that would astonish the most economical buyers. TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THIS, YOUR LAST OPPORTUNITY. BUY NOW, and if necessary keep them until next Winter, as hundreds of others have done.

DAN COHEN

WHOLESALE WAREHOUSE CORNER PEARL AND VINE STREETS, CINCINNATI, OHIO.

Freeman & Freeman's
Old Stand, 336 Main Street.

PARIS, KY.